

BSI SA

OUR COMPANY

BSI SA focuses its banking activities on the area of wealth management services for private clients and on asset management.

The Bank is present in the major financial international centres and stands out for its customer relations, centred on expertise, trust and discretion. BSI focuses on its traditional markets, Switzerland and South Europe , as well as new markets of Latin America, Middle East and Far East.

Established in Lugano in 1873 under the name of Banca della Svizzera Italiana, it has developed solid relations on the local and international levels over its 130 years of existence. Since 1998, BSI is part of Gruppo Generali, one of the major global insurance companies.

BSI is inspired by a strongly innovative spirit, which leads it to utilize and contribute to both the latest financial management techniques and the most advanced IT instruments supporting the banking business.
